

Congressman Rothman Introduces Resolution to Honor Super Bowl Champion Giants

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 9, 2012

CONTACT: Aaron Keyak

office: (202) 225-5061

cell: (202) 905-6361

email: aaron.keyak@mail.house.gov

Washington, DC – Congressman Steve Rothman (NJ-9), the Member of Congress who has the honor of representing the Meadowlands Sports Complex in East Rutherford, New Jersey, where the Giants practice and play, introduced a resolution congratulating the organization on their victory in Super Bowl XLVI.

“Congratulations to the Super Bowl Champion Giants on bringing the Lombardi trophy back home to New Jersey!” said Congressman Rothman. “The Giants have become a model of professionalism, a never-say-die attitude, teamwork, and wide-ranging community service. Their achievement is an inspiration to us all and brings great honor to our state and Giants fans throughout our country.”

Full text of the resolution:

Resolution Congratulating the National Football League champion New York Giants for winning Super Bowl XLVI.

Whereas on February 5, 2012, in Indianapolis, Indiana, the New York Giants defeated the New England Patriots by a score of 21 to 17 in Super Bowl XLVI to win the National Football League Championship;

Whereas the New England Patriots had a tremendous season, winning the American Football Conference Eastern Division and representing the American Football Conference in the Super Bowl;

Whereas during the postseason for the 2011–2012 regular season, the Giants defeated an Atlanta Falcons team with a regular season record of 10 wins and 6 losses, a Green Bay Packers team with a regular season record of 15 wins and 1 loss, a San Francisco 49ers team with a regular season record of 13 wins and 3 losses, and a New England Patriots team with a regular season record of 13 wins and 3 losses, thus becoming the first team to beat 4 teams in the playoffs with regular season records better than their own;

Whereas the Giants have been the model of resilience this season by overcoming both injury and adversity, having to place 13 players on injured reserve and becoming the first team to win the Super Bowl after losing 7 games in the regular season; Whereas quarterback Eli Manning, who completed 30 passes for 296 yards and 1 touchdown in the Super Bowl, and who improved his record as a starting quarterback in the postseason to 8 wins and 3 losses (and his record as a starting quarterback in the Super Bowl to 2 wins and 0 losses), was voted the winner of the Pete Rozelle Trophy, awarded to the Most Valuable Player of the Super Bowl, becoming the first Giants player to win the award more than once and only the fifth player to do so in National Football League history, proving that he is truly one of the game's elite quarterbacks;

Whereas Tom Coughlin, in his eighth season as head coach of the Giants, has led his team to the playoffs 5 times, and this season, with the help of Defensive Coordinator Perry Fewell, Offensive Coordinator Kevin Gilbride, and the entire Giants coaching staff, led the Giants to victory in Super Bowl XLVI, proudly bringing the Vince Lombardi Trophy back to New Jersey;

Whereas the Giants organization is one of the most successful in National Football League history, boasting 15 Hall of Fame players, 28 postseason appearances, more than 600 wins, 18 National Football League divisional championships, and 8 National Football League championships, including remarkable title runs in 1987, 1991, 2008, and 2012 (Super Bowls XXI, XXV, XLII, and XLVI) that captivated fans in New York, in New Jersey, and around the country;

Whereas Giants owner and Chief Executive Officer John Mara and Executive Vice President Steve Tisch have done a remarkable job leading this storied franchise with the assistance and dedication of their talented staff;

Whereas the Giants have played all their home games in the Meadowlands Sports Complex, located in East Rutherford, New Jersey, since 1976 and have supported Bergen County and the New York and northern New Jersey areas with community outreach projects; and

Whereas the entire Giants franchise has become a model of professionalism, teamwork, and community service in representing the entire New York and New Jersey metropolitan area: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives congratulates the National Football League champion New York Giants for winning Super Bowl XLVI.

###